PENN DISTRICT DIFFERENTIATORS

The Founder of Penn District, Samantha Pennington, spent her early years in underserved communities where there was not much emphasis on design and how it impacted the people. As an artist and dynamic problem solver, she has an unwavering commitment to create impactful experiences for all people through design. She has 13+ years of experience in architectural interior design (corporate, government, healthcare, and residential), corporate event planning & design, project management, construction administration, and contract furniture sales. She has been involved in architectural projects from initial client meetings to installation, ranging from small lobby renovations to 500,000 square foot new construction projects. She has worked for leading contract furniture manufacturers, coordinating the sell of and specifications for furniture over $20M/list. She has been the event designer and planner for events ranging from small private dinners to fashion shows with 750+ attendees as well.

Our leadership and experience make Penn District well suited to deliver cutting-edge work that speaks to the level of quality our clients are looking for. Penn District uses a collaborative approach, partnering with clients to solve their design problems, ensuring they reach their goals and we deliver the optimal design.
